INSERT INSTRUCTIONAL – TEACHING MATERIALS (GOOGLE IMAGES) – USING AI-SMART SEARCH

The screenshot shows a Google Images search for "Able to count 1 to 10,". The search results display various educational materials. A specific image of numbers 1-10 with faces is highlighted. A red arrow points to this image, labeled "1". A text box says "Press image required". Another red arrow points from this image to a larger version of the same image on the right, labeled "2". A text box says "Click Right – Copy Image Address".

Search results include:

- Numbers from 1 to 10
- Worksheets for
- Objects
- Numbers worksheet
- Write numbers
- Kindergarten worksheets

Image 1 (Left): A yellow background with numbers 1-10, each with a face. A red arrow points to it, labeled "1". A text box says "Press image required".

Image 2 (Right): A larger version of the same image. A red arrow points to it, labeled "2". A text box says "Click Right – Copy Image Address".

INSERT INSTRUCTIONAL – TEACHING MATERIALS (GOOGLE IMAGES)

The diagram illustrates the process of inserting a video into a document using Google Images. It consists of two main panels connected by a large red arrow.

Left Panel: Insert/Edit Image Dialog

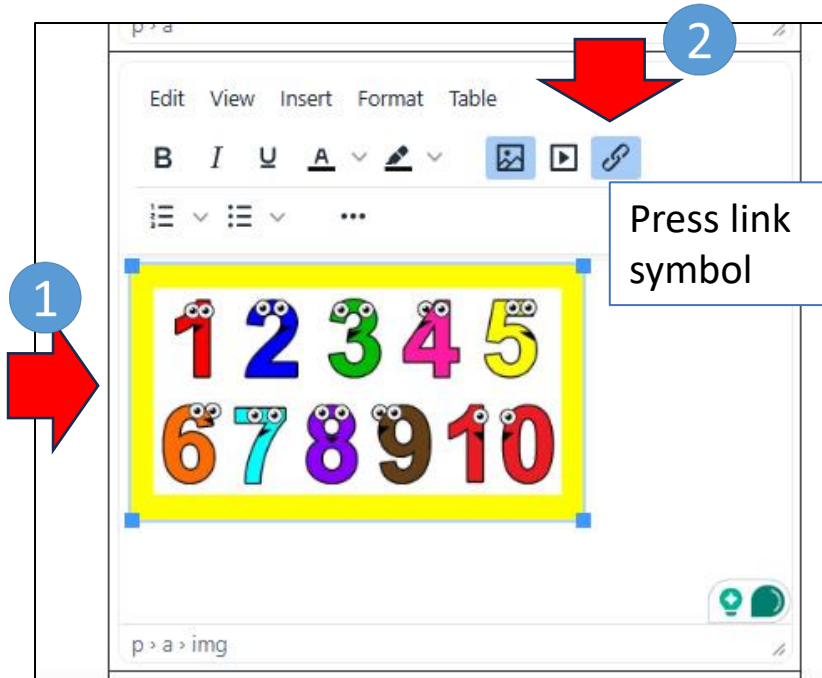

- The dialog box is titled "Insert/Edit Image" and has a close button (X).
- It has two tabs: "General" (selected) and "Advanced".
- Under the "General" tab, there are fields for "Source", "Alternative description", "Width", and "Height".
- A red arrow points from a "Paste" button to the "Source" field, with a blue circle containing the number "1" next to it.
- Below the "Source" field, there is a text box labeled "Paste image address".
- A red arrow points from the "Paste image address" box to the "Save" button.
- The "Save" button is blue, and the "Cancel" button is grey.

Right Panel: Document Editor

- The document editor shows a video player interface.
- The video player has a yellow border and displays the numbers 1 through 10 in a colorful, stylized font.
- A red arrow points from the "Save" button in the left panel to the video player in the right panel.
- Below the video player, a text box says "Video will automatically be inserted".
